The Early Career Hydrogeologists' network will honor the best oral and poster presentation at the 2024 World Groundwater Congress in Davos.

Who can participate?

All scientists in the first 10 years of their career (after their last graduation, MSc or PhD) are welcome to participate in the award.

How to participate?

◆ Oral presenters

The session chairs will evaluate the presentations using a Google form. The presenter is responsible for informing the chair (before the session starts) that he/she participates in the competition. The award logo can be included in the final slide of the presentation as a reminder.

◆ Poster presentations

All participants evaluate the poster presentations. The presenter must include the award logo and the QR code (leading to the evaluation form) on the Poster. Both elements can be found in the Google folder (link below) or will be available as stickers at the conference center.
